

Making Sense of HIV and Pregnancy

Prenatal Classes for HIV-Positive Pregnant Women

*How do I give my baby AZT syrup? Should I have a C-section?
Why shouldn't I breastfeed? What nutritious foods should I eat?*

These questions, and many more, will be answered by the expert nurse practitioners and nutritionists who teach the classes. Other topics include:

*HIV 101 • Perinatal Transmission • 1st Trimester • 2nd Trimester • 3rd Trimester
Nutrition • Labor • Vaginal Delivery • After Delivery for Mom and Baby • Newborn Care
Post-Partum • Depression • STIs • Contraception Options*

WHEN:     Monday, July 27th, 1 – 5pm
                  Monday, August 3rd, 1 – 5pm
                  Wednesday, August 12th, 1 – 5pm

Classes taught by: Brenda Wolfe RN APN ACRN
                              Ruth Williams RN
                              Heather Riordan RDN

---

Lunch is provided.

Transportation to and from the class may be provided.

Support persons who know your HIV status are welcome to attend as guests (such as baby's father, family member, or friend).

Graduates are eligible to receive a free infant carrier after delivery and a baby shower gift will be given to graduates at the last class.

There is limited enrollment available.
Please call (312) 334 - 0971 to reserve a spot.

PACPI | PEDIATRIC AIDS CHICAGO
PREVENTION INITIATIVE

Classes are funded in part by Nordstrom, Inc. and M•A•C AIDS Fund